WHAT THE GOVERNOR HAS DONE.

The Gazette presents some figures to its readers, taken from the State Journal, which will be of special interest because they show what enterprise, industry and courage an executive will accomplish when applied in the right direction. Governor Rusk to-day deposited with State Treasurer Harshaw $76,797.37, the amount collected from the general government on the settlement of various claims. Of this amount $27,091.72 was from war claims abandoned by the state years ago, but revived by Governor Rusk and vigorously prosecuted until a settlement was reached. The remainder of the amount deposited, $29,105.65, was the five per centum from sales of the public lands for the years 1884, 1885, 1886 and 1887. The five per centum for the year 1883, amounting to $24,206.21, was deposited by the governor on the 16th of February last.

When Governor Rusk assumed the duties of executive of the state the five per centum from the sales of public lands had not been settled for several years, and this is the first time since the war that they have been settled up to date. He has collected altogether from this source $102,245.84, which all goes to the school fund.

When the governor was inaugurated in 1882, the state was indebted to the general government on the direct war tax $207,685.16, which has all been paid. Governor Rusk says the war tax, in his opinion, should be refunded to the states. Wisconsin has paid her quota in full, and as the war tax was really an enforced loan it should be returned to us.

In 1885, acting under authority of an act of the legislature, the governor appointed Col. Geo. W. Burchard, of Fort Atkinson, as agent of the state for the prosecution of the swamp land claims against the general government. Col. Burchard has procured patents for about 40,000 acres of land, and has a bill pending in congress for $125,000 of indemnity. Governor Rusk speaks in the highest terms of Col. Burchard's services, especially in settling the war claims which had been abandoned by the state in 1875. These claims were all of small amounts, ranging from two dollars to one hundred dollars, and their settlement has been effected only by a vast amount of patient, painstaking labor.

SOME QUESTIONS WHICH WON'T BE ANSWERED.

Complaint is justly made that soap manufacturers are not compensated fairly for their lost bounty duties on consumers by the proposed addition of raw materials to the free list. Many other crudeties and imperfections are noted in the Mills bill, including a retention of the coal tax for the benefit of bosses in Virginia, a retention of the iron ore tax for the profit of the bosses of Alabama, while salt and lumber are put on the list because they do not affect the South. But instead of calling for the unconditional rejection of the measure these defects simply prove that its faulty sections should be amended and corrected. The wool schedule especially needs attention, for it is in this particular that the most beneficial reform of the tariff can be effected with the least injury to and interest. Cheaper woolen cloths and blankets will be a direct blessing to the whole people.—Chicago Tribune.

This is the meaningless complaint of a free trade paper. It is never satisfied unless it is howling about a tariff that robs a down trodden people. Will the Tribune be frank and honest enough to answer a few direct questions?

If tariff robs the people, why is it that under twenty-five years of protection the United States made more advancement in developing its industries than it did in seventy-five years previous.

If the tariff is a monopoly which retards manufacturers, why is it that the United States manufacture more goods per capita than it did at any time prior to the adoption of the tariff poicy?

If the tariff on wool makes clothing dear, why is it that good clothing for the working people is cheaper and better than ever before known in this country?

If a tariff makes a country poor, why is it that the United States is outstripping all other countries in wealth and population?

If a tariff hurts the working man, why is it that the working men of America get better wages, and have better homes than the working people of any other country on earth?

If free trade is to so beautiful in practice, why is it that the immigration from England to the United States is growing greater every year?

These are some important questions worth a candid answer.

The jury in the case of Edward Billings, of Waverly, Iowa, charged with the murder of W. S. Kingsley last year, has rendered a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree. Billings is a natural born scoundrel. He set about to effect the ruin of young Kingsley, who was a promising lawyer. He induced persons to swear falsely against Kingsley, and he forged his wife's name to love letters so that it might appear that Kingsley and Mrs. Billings were unlawfully intimate. All this was done by the wretch of a Billings that he might rob the young man of his money as well as of his character. He then set Kingsley to cover up his tracks. A man who would be guilty of such infamy, should hang and never go to state prison.

The New York Press prints the following facts which may not please free traders, but they are important nevertheless:

Over 1,000,000 of the inhabitants of the United Kingdom are paupers, and in London one in every five of the population dies a pauper. Pauperism and crime annually cost John Bull $82,000,000. The total number of paupers in the principal continental countries is 2,351,000, while their population is 187,000,000, against 1,017,000 paupers in the United Kingdom, with a population of 35,000,000, showing 30.6 paupers to the thousand in free trade England, and only 12.5 paupers to the thousand in protective continental countries.

The wonderful advantages of free trade are not seen in the foregoing item. It is a fact that free trade countries are always the poorest.

The Oskosh Times, democratic, thinks that the government will not lose much by the resignation of Indian Agent Gregory. Probably not a great deal. Guess the government will be the gainer. There will be fewer pine logs off the reservation to find their way in a lumber company managed by a part of this reform democratic administration.

CHURCHILL'S WARNING.

He Urges Justice to Ireland—The Young Tory Leader at Outs with the Ministry.

LONDON, April 25.—In the Commons yesterday there was an interesting debate upon the motion for a second reading of the Irish County Government bill. During the discussion Mr. Gladstone criticised the Tory Government for its breach of its promises to the people. Mr. Balfour declared that as long as the present acute controversy existed local government could not be extended to Ireland.

Lord Randolph Churchill said that the Government in 1886 pledged itself to extend to Ireland the same amount of local liberty. That pledge was the foundation of the Unionist party and the only platform upon which they could resist repeal. If the Government relied merely upon the executive powers, and if they were going to preach that their Irish duties must be looked upon as inferior, they might for a time hold that position, but only for a very short time. [Parnellite cheers.] There was not sufficient interpretation of the Government policy. If Ireland had to wait in the hands of the executive the Conservatives must take care that they did not expose themselves to a well-directed indictment of reaction. The bill was rejected.

Lord Randolph Churchill's speech in Parliament created a sensation and was a matter of surprise to members of all parties. It is admitted that the proceedings of the week in Parliament have been damaging to the Government.

THE NEXT SENATE.

Democrats Making Great Efforts to Control the Upper Branch of Congress—They Hope to Take in Oregon, and Also Have an Eye on Michigan.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The Democratic papers announce that a part of their campaign this year will be directed to the capture of the Senate. As the case stands now with Barbour, of Virginia, elected to succeed Riddleberger, and supposing that there are no other changes, the next Senate will be a tie, and with a Democratic Vice-President that party would control the upper house of Congress. But the Democrats don't propose to be satisfied with this. They are hoping to capture the Legislature of Oregon, to be elected in June, and choose the successor of Senator Dolph, whose term expires next March. Michigan is another State to which they are looking with hopes born of Postmaster-General Dickinson. The only State in which they believe it possible for them to lose a Senator is in New Jersey, and on that contingency they are speculating anxiously. Some recent movements in that State prove that the Administration is trying to conciliate Senator McPherson and unite the Democratic factions.

INDIANS ON THE WAR-PATH.

A Desperate Encounter Between Mexican Federal Forces and the Yaquis.

NOGALES, A. T., April 26.—The Yaqui Indians are now at war with the Mexican Federal forces. They are fortifying several places and making a determined stand against the troops. A few days ago Major Encino and Lieutenant Valtarel, with two columns of Federal troops, attacked the Indians in a strongly fortified position in the Zamalaquaca Mountains, near the town of Agua Verda. A desperate fight ensued, but the Federals, after a number of charges, routed the Indians from the fortifications, killing seventeen and wounding a large number. The Federal forces had one man killed and several wounded.

SIX BURIED ALIVE.

Several Laborers Lose Their Lives by a Cave-In of Earth in a Trench.

YONKERS, N. Y., April 26.—A frightful accident occurred here yesterday afternoon. A gang of men were working in a sewer-trench, which is sixteen feet deep, when a water-pipe burst, causing the sides of the ditch to cave in and quickly filling the trench with earth and water. Six of the laborers are known to have been buried alive. One poor fellow was covered all but his head and made the most piteous appeals for help, but he was soon buried by the caving earth and perished. At 9 o'clock four bodies were unearthed.

BLAINE WON'T RUN.

It Is Said He Will Renew More Positively His Declination.

A DAY AMONG THE POLITICIANS.

Action Taken by Republican Conventions in Pennsylvania and Massachusetts—Indiana's Democratic Delegation—Other Notes.

NOT A CANDIDATE.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Under the heading, "Mr. Blaine—A Highly Important Intimation," the Sun prints the following:

"A political rumor reaches us from a high Republican source and of so important a character that we publish it promptly. According to this intimation the last thing that Mr. Blaine will do, as he embarks on board the steamship which is to bring him home to the United States, will be to renew in the most positive language his refusal to be the Republican candidate for the Presidency. This time the declaration will be so absolute that it will give to all his friends a notice which they can not ignore. He will say that, even if he should be nominated by the Republican convention, he will refuse to stand; and as it will be impossible to communicate with him after the publication of this new refusal until the convention has met and done its work and adjourned, his most enthusiastic supporters will no longer be able to find any reason for hoping that he may be induced to change his mind and accept the nomination."

PENNSYLVANIA REPUBLICANS.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 26.—The Republican State convention to nominate four delegates-at-large to the National convention, a candidate for Supreme Judge and two electors-at-large, met in the opera-house at 11 o'clock a. m. The convention was the largest held here for many years, and the opera-house was overcrowded. The convention was called to order by Chairman Cooper, of the State Committee. Samuel H. Miller, of Mercer County, was elected temporary chairman.

Mr. Miller's reference to Blaine was greeted with loud and long-continued cheers. The platform submitted to the convention demanded that Congress enact such laws as shall secure fair elections for members of Congress and the Electoral College; denounced the President's message and the weed clause of the Mills Tariff bill; demanded the passage of a just and comprehensive pension bill; condemned the action of the Democrats in the House in refusing to pass the Direct-Tax bill; declared in favor of a true Civil-Service reform; pledged the Republican party of the State to submit the question of prohibition to a vote of the people, and indorsed the State administration of Governor Beaver.

The convention then proceeded to nominate a candidate for Supreme Judge, and James T. Mitchell, of Philadelphia, was nominated on the fourth ballot. Thomas Dolan, of Philadelphia, and Lewis Pugh, of Lackawanna, were chosen candidates for Presidential electors-at-large, and Senator M. S. Quay, General Daniel H. Hastings, Nelson P. Reed and Henry W. Oliver were chosen delegates-at-large to the National convention.

MASSACHUSETTS REPUBLICANS.

BOSTON, Mass., April 26.—The Republican State convention in session in Tremont Temple here yesterday nominated Senator George F. Hoar, of Worcester; F. L. Burden, of North Attleboro, chairman of the State Committee; State Treasurer Henry S. Hyde, of Springfield, and Alanson W. Beard, of Boston, delegates-at-large to the National Republican convention. The convention was well attended. Chairman Burden called it to order, and made a long speech. His mention of Mr. Blaine was wildly cheered. General William Cogswell, of Salem, was chosen permanent chairman. He made a speech in which he criticised the Administration of President Cleveland, after which the delegates-at-large were chosen.

A platform was adopted which denounces the Democratic party as a foe to honest elections and for its opposition to the Dakota bill; declares that President Cleveland has been unfaithful to his civil-service reform promises; favors high license and local option and trade reciprocity with other peoples on this continent. The tariff plank follows:

"The Republicans of Massachusetts now, as always, demand that the revenue of the Government shall be so collected as to afford protection to United States industries and labor, and to preserve the home market to the home producer. While they favor a proper revision of the tariff, they oppose such revision as has for the primary object the abandonment of the protective principle; and they claim that the propositions made by the Democratic party through the message of the President and the Mills bill warrant the opposition of every citizen who prefers the welfare of his country to that of another. The Republican party devised methods of securing the revenue to carry on the war, and, when the necessity was ended, at once began to reduce that revenue, both by tariff revision and by cutting off needless internal taxes. This reduction of revenue to current needs of the Government the Republican party will continue when in power."

The delegates are not instructed, but all are for Cleveland and Gray. Probabilities point to the nomination of Matson for Governor, and the delegates-at-large to the National convention are likely to be Senators Voorhees and Turple, John G. Shanklin and John Bass.

MICHIGAN COLORED MEN IN COUNCIL.

DETROIT, Mich., April 26.—The State convention of colored men met at Jackson Tuesday for the purpose of organizing a State association and considering matters relative to the coming campaign. About fifty delegates were present. Resolutions were adopted lamenting the death of Roscoe Conkling; indorsing the Blair Educational bill; indorsing the candidacy of General Russell A. Alger, and unequivocally indorsing the Republican party.

ILLINOIS REPUBLICANS.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 26.—The Illinois Republican State convention will meet here next Wednesday to nominate candidates for State officers and Presidential electors and to appoint delegates-at-large to the National convention. It will be one of the most important political conventions that has ever assembled in this State.

ILLINOIS DEMOCRATS ORGANIZING.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 26.—The Democratic State Central Committee has adopted a plan of organizing political clubs throughout the State. The Executive Committee has directed Secretary Mize to designate organizers in each Congressional district.

ILLINOIS UNION LABOR PARTY.

DECATUR, Ill., April 26.—About 100 delegates have arrived here to attend the State convention of the Union Labor party, which meets to-day. Only known labor men and farmers in full sympathy with the movement to kill the National banking system and to secure just taxation and legislation will be nominated for State officers. Either W. W. Jones, of Camargo, or Representative Dixon, of Chicago, will be nominated for Governor.

FOR CONGRESS.

CLEVELAND, O., April 26.—The Republicans of the Fourteenth district, at Shelby, O., yesterday renominated Charles P. Wickham for Congress and adopted strong Sherman resolutions.

HIAWATHA, Kan., April 26.—Congressman E. N. Morrill was renominated yesterday by the Republicans of the First Kansas district. The convention declared that Blaine was the choice of the Kansas Republicans.

BELFAST, Me., April 26.—Yesterday Congressman Milliken was re-nominated by the Republicans, and a resolution was passed indorsing Blaine for the Presidency, but regretting the Florence letter.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., April 26.—The Democrats of the Tenth Pennsylvania District have nominated Horace L. Haldeman for Congress.

TEXAS REPUBLICANS.

FORT WORTH, Tex., April 26.—The State Republican convention yesterday chose an uninstructed delegation to Chicago. The delegation stands sixteen white and ten colored. It is thought to be about equally divided in first preference between Blaine and Sherman. T. B. Hamm, of Denison, and A. J. Evans, of San Antonio, were nominated for electors-at-large.

"In Silk Attire."

When our grandmothers wanted to be "dressed" they invariably wore SILK. Old-fashioned, may be; smelling of lavender, doubtless; but certainly invested with impressive dignity, and lending an air of state to the most ordinary occasion. Ample in folds, their dresses "stood alone," with an appearance of severe grandeur to which no other material could ever hope to aspire. And no material ever HAS successfully competed with Silk. True, the silk dress has been much modernized, but it's silk all the same; and, at our marvelously close-trimmed prices, every woman in the land can easily afford to wear them. See:

Should your fancy pitch on the blacks or blacks-and-whites, recollect that these can be worn, in the present day, without anybody imagining that you're in "funereal garb."

THE GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, APRIL 26.

VOORHEES' VOICE.

It Is Raised in Defense of McClellan and Hancock.

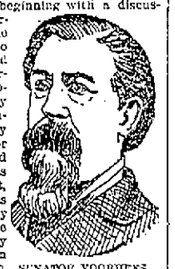

A VIGOROUS REPLY TO SENATOR INGALLS.

Several Speeches in the House For and Against the Mills Bills—The Tariff Debate to Be Limited to Seventeen Days.

VOORHEES ANSWERS INGALLS.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The House Ways and Means Committee has agreed to limit the general tariff debate to seventeen days and two evening sessions weekly and to an equal division of the time between Democratic and Republican speakers.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Senator Voorhees (Ind.) yesterday delivered an eloquent and passionate address, beginning with a discussion of the Mills Tariff bill. He said the issues which the two great parties would present to the American people next November were plainly laid down On the principal proclaimed by Jefferson that error was not to be feared so long as truth was left free to control it, the pernicious ideas and dangerous policy maintained by the Republican party might be looked upon without appreciation.

SENATOR VOORHEES.

An extensive discussion of the tariff in the Senate and House left no doubt as to the attitude of the Republican party on that question, and it had at last been forced to throw away masks and false-faces, and to admit that taxation was not to stop at the revenue line of the Government, but to be turned loose without limit and without shame on the labor of the people for the purpose of enriching a favored few—a syndicate of devouring, insatiate monopolists. The Republican party leaders were going before the people opposing every reduction of taxes except those paid by tobacco and alcoholic spirits. He did not intend that that issue should be dodged in the coming campaign, at least in Indiana. The position of the Republican party might be described thus:

"1. Taxation not to be limited by the expenses of the Government, but to be left unconfined with a view to the protection of manufacturing monopolists.

"2. All the protection given and all its profits to enure to the further enrichment of capitalists, but not a dollar of it to laboring men and women.

"3. That if any reduction of taxes was to take place it must be on liquor and tobacco, and not on the necessaries of life."

Referring to the charges that the Democrats in Congress have been hostile to Union soldiers in the matter of pensions, he insisted that the Democrats had been liberal toward them in the extremest sense, and gave figures to show the increased number of pensions allowed under the present administration. He defended the President's record in reference to pension bills and others showing his attitude toward the Union soldier. The attempt to place the Democratic party in an attitude of unfriendliness toward the soldier was without justification and must be without success. It was only surpassed in mendacity by the attempts to stigmatize the party as disloyal. Referring to the criticisms recently made in the Senate by Senator Ingalls (Kan.) upon Generals McClellan and Hancock, Senator Voorhees reviewed the services of the two Generals during the war, and dwelt upon what he alleged was the injustice with which McClellan was treated because he was a Democrat. Senator Voorhees declared that at Antietam McClellan saved the Union. He spoke of General Pope as "vapid" and incompetent, and denominated those who now assail the memories and records of McClellan and Hancock as "clamorous kites and other ignoble scavenger birds."

Senator Voorhees then reviewed the history of reconstruction, and denounced the Republican administration of Southern State governments. He justified the South for its refusal to affiliate with the Republican party, saying as well might the frontier settlements be expected to welcome another invasion of tomahawk and scalping-knives. He could see nothing to wonder at in the 75,000 Democratic majority given in Louisiana but a few days ago. These people were alarmed at the possibility of a return to power of the party and the men who had robbed them and left them overburdened with debt. His only wonder was that the vote was not unanimous. The present prosperous condition of the South answered the partisan charges against that section. Senator Voorhees closed with the prediction that the verdict of the people next November would be that there had been honest, capable government for the last four years and that it should be continued.

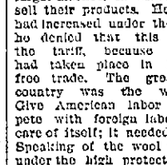

The Animal Industry bill then came up, but was laid aside temporarily, and the Unearned Land Grant bill was taken up and discussed until 5 o'clock, when the Senate adjourned.

TARIFF TALK IN THE HOUSE.

The tariff reform speech delivered by Mr. Bynum (Ind.) was the feature of yesterday's proceedings in the House. Referring to the surplus, he said the withdrawal of so large a sum of money from the channels of trade for any long period of time would result in a contraction of the currency which would bankrupt and ruin our most enterprising business men. The time had passed when the House could refuse to consider a measure for the reduction of taxation. The bill presented did not meet with his unqualified approval. He believed that duties on imports should be levied and collected at all times, to meet the current ordinary expenses of the Government, and that extraordinary expenses should be met by internal taxes. He would maintain the present internal revenue system of taxation until the last obligation of the war was discharged; but he was willing to come to the consideration of the bill in a spirit of concession and compromise, and join in the construction of a measure which yielded something to the reductions of every locality. He advocated a reduction of duties on materials which the laborers of the country worked and such reductions as would give larger markets in which manufacturers could sell their products. He admitted that wages had increased under the protective tariff, but he denied that this was on account of the tariff, because the same increase had taken place in Great Britain under free trade. The great trouble with the country was the want of a market. Give American labor a chance to compete with foreign labor, and it could take care of itself; it needed no other protection. Speaking of the wool industry, he said that under the high protection on wool the price had steadily fallen. He did not assert that the tariff was the sole cause of the decline in the price, but contended that it was an important factor. The people of the United States consumed 600,000,000 pounds of wool a year which cost them $210,000,000, more than one-half of which had to be purchased abroad because the high tariff had broken down all our woolen industries. During the past ten years the United States had imported $162,000,000 of cotton goods more than it had exported. American labor had been robbed of the privilege of making that $162,000,000 of cotton goods. During the same period the imports of woolen goods had exceeded the exports by $350,000,000. The American workmen had been robbed of the labor that was contained in the $350,000,000 of woolen goods, and yet gentlemen on the other side talked about protecting American labor.

Mr. Browne followed his colleague from Indiana, saying that while this was not the first time there had been a surplus neither Presidents Johnson, Grant nor Arthur had made the condition of the Treasury a pretext for disturbing the industrial policy of the Government. He was anxious to have revenues lowered to the limit of National wants, but the plan sketched by the President would result in disaster to American industries. He condemned the internal revenue system, and quoted statistics to show that under the protective system the wool industry had increased enormously, while by the duty reductions of 1883 it had been nearly ruined. In conclusion, he congratulated the President on compelling his party to make an issue of the tariff question.

Mr. Dockery (Mo.) in supporting the Mills bill said a revenue tariff was a tax designed to furnish sufficient revenue to meet Government expenses honestly administered, and that a protective tax was a discriminating force attached to certain industries to the disparagement of other industries. Reduction of taxation, he declared, was and would continue to be the dominating issue in American politics. He warned Congress that if it did not reduce taxation the surplus would be gotten rid of by extravagant appropriations. The Republican party could not show that the protective system was beneficial to the working-men of the country. Unprotected industries, he insisted, paid their employes higher wages than protected establishments. The protective system had built up an aristocracy of monopoly.

MR. DOCKERY.

The House then took a recess until 8 o'clock, the evening session to be devoted to debate on the Tariff Bill.

At the evening session Mr. Shaw (Md.) made a speech in support of the Mills bill. He argued that Congress had not the power to levy and collect taxes for any other purpose but that of revenue. He especially advocated the clause of the bill which places tin plate on the free list, urging that the continuation of the tariff upon that article unnecessarily enhanced the price of canned goods. Mr. Glass (Tenn.) spoke in support of the bill, and the House at 10:25 adjourned.

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE CONVENTION.

Illinois Ladies at Joliet Opposed to the Present Kind of Laws.

JOLIET, Ill., April 26.—The Woman's Equal Suffrage convention had its second day's session here yesterday and adjourned at night. The forenoon was spent in organizing and talks on practical work. The attendance was large, the Universalist church where they met being packed to its utmost capacity. In the afternoon there was a general debate on the Illinois State laws affecting woman's property rights. Mrs. Gougar spoke on the evils of the petit and grand jury systems, claiming that if women had the same political rights men hold they would not only serve on juries, but the evils now apparent would be remedied, and especially alluded to the evils of the jury system in Chicago. Attorney Shultz, of this city, said that property rights in Illinois were more favorable to the women than the men, especially in divorce matters, but not so in dower rights, when property had been jointly accumulated. Rev. J. W. Conley, of this city, spoke on "The Elevating Influence of Women in All Matters, Both Social and Political." At night Mrs. Gougar delivered a forcible address on "An Unrestricted Ballot." A district organization was formed as a branch of the State organization, embracing the Eighth Congressional district, with headquarters at Joliet. Mrs. R. W. McClaughrey was chosen President; Mrs. E. S. Smith, Vice-President; Mrs. M. Calmer, Treasurer; Mrs. Burlingame, Secretary. A large number became members of the State organization.

BAD FOR ST. LOUIS.

The Vulcan Steel Works Forced to Remove Their Plant to Cleveland.

ST. LOUIS, April 26.—A sensation was caused in manufacturing circles Tuesday by the rumor that the rich body of iron-ore at Iron Mountain and Pilot Knob had been exhausted and that the Vulcan steel-works would be removed to Cleveland. The plant is controlled by the St. Louis Ore & Steel Company and its lessees are Wilcox & Stuart. The shipments have fallen from 22,000 tons of ore per month to 6,000. Seventy per cent of the men employed have been discharged because there is no more work for them to do. Stores in the vicinity have been abandoned, and the settlement which was so lively a year ago, as only a mining camp can be, is now exceedingly dull. The former employes are going elsewhere to seek for work.

Cut Off His Head.

ERIE, Pa., April 26.—A frightful accident occurred in Kent & Co's wooden-ware works in Corry Tuesday evening. A large circular saw running at a high rate of speed burst with a terrific report. E. L. Bishop, a member of the Erie bar, and Lynn Perkins, an employe, were the victims. A section of the saw cut off the top of Bishop's head, carrying away the skull and leaving the brain intact, without rupturing the membrane. Perkins is horribly mutilated about the face, but may recover. Bishop expired during the night.

The Curse of Modern England.

LONDON, April 26.—Lord Wolseley, at the recent banquet to Sir John Pender, disapproved the present army and navy system, which, he said, would sooner or later land the country in disaster. Undoubtedly the reason for this could be found in the system of government by party, the curse of modern England, which was sapping the manly honesty formerly characteristic of statesmen.

Approved by the President.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The President has approved the act for bridges across the Mississippi river at Memphis; the act to facilitate the prosecution of works projected for the improvement of rivers and harbors, and the act granting the right of way to the Duluth, Rainy Lake River & Southwestern Railway Company through certain Indian lands in the State of Minnesota.

Bidding for Southern Immigration.

HOT SPRINGS, N. C., April 26.—A preliminary meeting was held here Tuesday night to formulate a plan of organization for the Immigration convention. A resolution was passed to the effect that each city in the South with over 5,000 inhabitants shall contribute $1,000 toward establishing a Bureau of Immigration in New York City.

Pasteur's Latest Cure.

PARIS, April 26.—Chamberlin, the American who was bitten by a mad wolf, will sail for home Saturday. He was inoculated for the last time Tuesday. M. Pasteur says he never had a more dreadful case, but the patient is; saved. The grateful man gave the doctor a gold-headed walking-stick and $2,000.

A Lady Still Has the Place.

DES MOINES, Ia., April 26.—The Governor will appoint Mrs. Mary Miller as State Librarian, vice Mrs. S. R. Maxwell. This will be a complete surprise, as it was supposed that one of the sterner sex would get in in the event of a change.

College Corner-Stone to Be Laid.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The corner-stone of the Divinity building, the new Catholic university, will be laid on May 24. The ceremonies will be elaborate and the number of invited guests very large.

A School Burned.

CONCORD, N. H., April 26.—The High School Building was entirely destroyed by fire yesterday. Loss, $50,000. The Unitarian church, next door, was gutted. Loss, $20,000.

Bishops in Council.

NEW YORK, April 26.—The Bishops of the Methodist church began their semi-annual session in St. Paul's Church yesterday morning. Among those present are Bishops Bowman, of St. Louis; Andrews, of Washington; Foss, of Minneapolis; Fowler, of San Francisco; Foster, of Boston; Warren, of Denver; Waldon, of Chattanooga, Merrill, of Chicago, and Mallalieu, of New Orleans.

A Tragedy in Ohio.

NELSONVILLE, O., April 26.—Recently Edward H. Davis, assistant marshal, arrested Samuel Dow, a young married man, for fast driving. Tuesday night Dow met Davis and shot him dead. The murderer then walked a block, and putting the revolver to his own head, fired and fell a corpse.

Growth of the South.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Reports from the Southern States show greatly increased prosperity among the farmers. The increase in the assessed valuation of property between 1880 and 1887 was $977,000,000.

Their Business Boom.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at Frank Sherer & Co's Drug Store as their giving away to their customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article, from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size $1. Every bottle warranted.

CHEERS FOR THE QUEEN.

Victoria's Enthusiastic Reception at Berlin.

HER GRACIOUS ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

An Interview with Prince Bismarck—Dinners and Visits—The Emperor Able to Partake of Veal Cutlets and Beer.

VICTORIA'S VISIT.

BERLIN, April 26.—Queen Victoria attended the services in the chapel at Charlottenburg yesterday. Afterward the Queen reviewed the staff of the British Embassy. Later the Queen gave an audience to Prince Bismarck, which lasted an hour. The road from Charlottenburg to Berlin was thronged at an early hour. The people waited patiently for the arrival of the Queen. When it was announced that she was coming the police were powerless to check the eager crowds and the people broke through the lines and surged around the Queen's carriage, cheering and waving hats and handkerchiefs. Rarely has there been a greater display of enthusiasm, the scene being in marked contrast with the recent reception of the Czar.

The Queen bowed her acknowledgments. A similar scene occurred at Charlottenburg when the Queen, simply attired and wearing a white cap on her head, was seen to cross the court-yard just at the moment of the arrival of Prince Bismarck, who was entirely neglected in the eagerness of the people to do honor to the Queen.

At the banquet on the right of the Empress sat the Queen, the Crown Prince and Prince Beatrice, and on her left Prince Henry and the Crown Princess. Opposite the Queen sat Prince Bismarck, with whom after the banquet her Majesty conversed for some time.

The dowager Empress Augusta called on the Queen in the afternoon. After a visit of thirty-five minutes the two ladies drove in a landau to the British embassy. In a second carriage were Princess Beatrice and the Emperor's three daughters, and in a third Prince Henry, of Battenberg. Tea was served at the embassy, the Crown Prince, who was followed later by the Crown Princess and Count Herbert Bismarck, being present. From the embassy the Queen and the Empress drove to the English chapel in the Monbijou Platz, and, after remaining twenty minutes, returned to Charlottenburg.

A banquet was given at the palace at 8 o'clock at which all the royal Princes and Princesses were present. Among the guests were Prince Bismarck, Count Herbert Bismarck, General von Moltke, Minister von Puttkamer, Count Stolberg, Generals Albedyll, Achenbach, von Lipe, Folenberg and von Rauch, the Duke of Rutland, Sir E. B. Malet, the British Ambassador, and his wife, and all the physicians attending the Emperor, including Drs. Mackenzie and Hovell. Owing to the improved condition of the Emperor Queen Victoria has decided to remain here to-day. She will attend a parade of the Life Guards to-day, leaving for home in the evening.

In spite of the cold rain yesterday crowds of people went from Berlin to Charlottenburg with the two-fold object of seeing Queen Victoria and hearing the latest reports concerning the Emperor. The day being a day of humiliation and prayer the evening papers were not published. The public greeted the Queen and the Empress in the heartiest manner.

The Emperor rose at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. He felt refreshed after his night's rest and enjoyed two cups of tea and a few light cakes. The Crown Prince visited the Emperor at 4 o'clock and afterward the Crown Princess paid him a long visit.

The Emperor continues to improve. At 11 o'clock last night he had little fever and was gaining strength.

Yesterday, for the first time in many weeks, the Emperor became impatient and wanted his luncheon before the usual time. He asked for veal cutlets and real German beer, and when they were served he enjoyed them immensely.

AMERICAN LIVES IN DANGER.

An Alarming State of Affairs in Cuba Owing to the Bandits' Boldness.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., April 26.—The five provinces declared in a state of siege in Cuba contain over 100 cities, towns and villages. Said a prominent gentleman arrived from there yesterday: "The Government, headed by Martin, wants to make it appear that the bandits, who have taken possession of Cuba, are committing their crimes in connection with a view to giving Cuba her liberty. Such is not the case. There is no politics in the matter. The whole truth is the bandits have become so fierce and powerful in Cuba that the Government would require 20,000 men to exterminate them."

In the third article of the proclamation signed by Martin he says that any person or persons found to be connected in any way with the bandits, or who have given food or shelter to any of their gang, shall be immediately tried by military law and executed.

As the Government, by the issue of this proclamation, gives extraordinary authority to the "Guardian Civil," the principal troops now used by the Government, grave fears are entertained in Havana that these troops will try to repeat what they did in Porto Rico recently, where Mr. Nadal, an American citizen, was one of the victims. The American residents of Cuba are very apt, in consequence of this siege, to be exposed to murder in cold blood, owing to the state of affairs on the island.

A Bishop Consecrated.

BELLEVILLE, Ill., April 26.—The consecration of Rt. Rev. John J. Janssen as Bishop of the new diocese of Belleville took place at St. Peter's Church yesterday. The ceremonies were solemnized by Archbishop Fehan, of Chicago, assisted by Archbishop Konrick, of St. Louis; Bishops Chatrkand, of Indianapolis; Hogan, of Kansas City; Fink, of Leavenworth; Spaulding, of Peoria; and Ryan, of Alton.

Accused of Embezzlement.

Queer Fits and Starts.

The fits and starts—using these words in their literal meaning—of the nervous people often strike the beholder as ludicrous. The nerves of hearing of such unfortunates are painfully acute, and impinged by abrupt, unexpected noises, lead them sometimes to perform antics worthy of a jumping-jack. At the root of nervousness, in most instances, is nonassimilation of the food, and consequently in-nutrition of the nerves as of the other tissues of the body. This prolonged is of course productive of serious nervous disease. The remedy is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, that invigorate the stomach and enables it to perform its functions properly Soon after commencing a course of it, it will be found that the nerves grow more tranquil by day, nightly repose becomes less interrupted and appetite more vigorous and satisfying. These are the initial indications, followed by the complete restoration of nervous vigor. The Bitters also cure fever and ague, liver complaint and constipation.

"Get there, get to work, get through, get away!" Vin. Bitters does this and you get well.

STRANGE DELUSIONS.

Instances of Monomania in Persons Who Are Otherwise Perfectly Sane.

Among the instances of singular monomanias which I have discovered is that of an important officer of the State Government of New England, writes the New York correspondent of the Pittsburgh Post. His special delusion is that the other members of the family are insane and are plotting to injure him, and that they ought to be put in an asylum. He is an able and celebrated lawyer, and conducts cases with marked effectiveness and success; his briefs and arguments show an unusual vigor and continuity of thought. Nobody knows of his mental conditions outside of his own family and a few intimate friends, to whom they have said, confidentially: "If any of us should disappear suddenly, look for us in an asylum."

Another most curious case is that of a wealthy banker in New York City who fancies that he is a ripe cherry that the birds are eager to pick. He has a terror of all fruit-eating birds, and seldom walks or appears anywhere in the open air. He makes his trips to and from his bank in a carriage, and keeps the doors and windows always shut tight, lest a sparrow should get in and swallow him. He knows very well that the preposterous belief would damage him and probably ruin him if it were generally known that he harbored it, so he conceals the consciousness of his fearful peril from his business associates and contents himself with keeping carefully out of the way of birds.

An interesting society lady of Troy imagines that a big Newfoundland dog always accompanies her, walks when she walks, stops when she stops. "I know perfectly well that it is not there," she says, "but I always see it, and that is what troubles me. When I go to bed it always lies down upon my feet."

There is a lady who has been a teacher for the last twelve years in the schools of New York City, and is still so employed, who imagines herself a wheelbarrow. "I know I am not a wheelbarrow, of course," she says to her physician, Dr. Hammond, "but that certainly makes no difference with the appearance and my sensations. When in school I am always a wheelbarrow, and my feet are the handles and my head is the wheel, and I seem to be trundling myself down the aisles and through the halls. It is ridiculous and painful and mortifying, but, though I know it is the result of a nervous disease, I can not shake off the hallucination."

W. A. Croffut, a journalist and successful mesmerist, gives me the following opinion: "Hallucinations are evidently closely akin to dreams. I can fill any one of my sensitives full of delusions in a minute; can make him think he is Washington or Grant or Victoria, a peddler, an opera singer, a teacher of languages, a rooster or a telegraph pole, and can banish the delusion in two seconds. Now, it seems to me that this hallucination is exactly of the same kind as hallucinations of lunatics, or the dreams of those who sleep, the only difference being that the sleeper holds the key of dreamland and the operator holds the key of the similar trance called mesmerism, while to the permanent trance called monomania the key is lost. I have wondered if it might not be possible to recover the lost key—to often waken the insane from their dream as somnambulists and the mesmerized are wakened."

SHE MADE A SALE.

The Book Agent's Triumph Over a Poor, Defenseless Man.

She was a pretty woman, and she bowed to me bewitchingly as she came in, says a writer in Town Topics. She held up one finger archly, and said, impetuously:

"Now, sir, I want you to stop your writing and look at my book."

Then she blushed charmingly, as if embarrassed at my look of amazement. I said:

"My dear madam, I am busy to-day, and I beg you will excuse me."

She sat down beside me and made herself comfortable at once.

"Now, don't let me hear another word about that; you are going to buy a book, of course."

"But, my dear——"

She took my hands gently but firmly in hers.

"I know—you are a busy man—you write all day and are too tired to read—you hardly find time to look at the paper—you——"

"Yes, madam; that's precisely the case."

She chucked me deliberately under the chin.

"Do you mean to say that you are going to refuse me a miserable little dollar for this beautiful book?"

I gasped feebly and glared at my office-boy. He was evidently interested. I said:

"You must be a successful book-agent; you have the most fetching qualities I have ever seen."

Rash words!

She rose at once, and, sitting down upon the arm of my chair, threw one arm around my neck, and bending down looked tenderly into my eyes.

"Now, you know, darling, you are going to do just what I say; you are going to buy—"

I heard my office-boy chuckle to himself. I protested. I said:

"My dear madam, this is really—embarrassing—do you know—I am a married man—that I—"

She replied: "I have nothing to do with that; I am here for business."

I replied: "That statement is unnecessary; the fact is quite apparent. But I am really fond of my wife. You've got hold of the wrong man."

She seemed a trifle hurt at this, but she did not take her arm from my neck. She remained in this compromising attitude apparently lost in thought. I broke into a cold sweat.

"I'll tell you what I'll do," she said, suddenly, bringing her face dangerously near my own; "if you'll take a copy of that book I'll promise not to kiss you before I leave the office!"

I bought the book.

A Town Built on Ice.

Fish City, Mich., is one of the oddest towns in the country, having no existence except in the winter. It is situated on Saginaw bay—not on the shores, but literally on the bay—and is a collection of board shanties built upon the ice. This season it contained 1,000 houses. They are the huts of the men who do the winter fishing for pike, pickerel, lake trout and whitefish, and as soon as the ice forms on the bay their construction is begun. The fishermen live in their huts from the time they are built until the breaking up of the ice in the spring forces them to come ashore. There is a door in each hut, and in the floor a trap door twenty inches square. When this is raised a hole the same size through the ice is discovered. At the side of this the fisherman sits all day and a great part of the night watching for his game, which he captures by a dexterous use of the spear. From 2,000,000 to 2,500,000 fish are caught from the bay each winter.

Beginning at the Wrong End.

An inventor at Stuttgart is said to have perfected a machine for deadening the sound of a piano. It will not be a success, the only sure way to keep a piano quiet is to deaden the pianist.

An Explanation.

What is this nervous trouble with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word malaria was comparatively unknown—to-day it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases, as they and Malaria are intended to cover what our grandfathers called Biliousness, and are all caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the Liver which in performing its functions finding it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channels is compelled to pass it off through the system, causing nervous troubles, Malaria, Bilious Fever, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. Its cures are marvelous.

Old and reliable Medicines are the best to depend upon. Acker's Blood Elixir has been prescribed for years for all impurities of the Blood. In every form of Scrofulous, Syphilitic or Mercurial diseases, it is invaluable. For Rheumatism, has no equal.

A "Put and Call."

This is a funny phrase to the uninitiated, but all the brokers understand it. They use it when a person gives a certain per cent. for the option of buying or selling stock on a fixed day, at a price stated on the day the option is given. It is often a serious operation to the dealer, but there is a more serious "put and call" than this: when you are put to bed with a severe cold and your friends "call" a physician. Avoid all this by keeping in the house Dr. Pierce's Medical Discovery. The great cure for pulmonary and blood diseases. Its action is marvelous. It cures the worst cough, whether acute, lingering, or chronic. For weak lungs, spitting of blood, short breath, consumption, night sweats, and kindred affections, it surpasses all other medicines.

OBITUARY.

EDDY.

Mrs. Jane A. Eddy, of Afton, widow of the late Rev. W. H. Eddy, departed this life April 21st, in the 66th year of her age. The deceased was born in Deerfield, New York, July 15th, 1822, and moved to this state in 1852, where she since resided. She was the mother of nine children—seven sons and two daughters, eight of whom remain to mourn her loss. She had been afflicted for years with heart disease, and for two months previous to her death was a great sufferer, being unable to lie down, but sat in her chair. She bore her suffering with patience and christian fortitude, and although she longed to be released from pain, yet she was submissive to the Master's will. She was a devoted wife and a loving mother, and her smiling face and cheerful disposition, made her home a happy one.

DRUNKENNESS

Or the Liquor Habit, Positively Cured by Administering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.

It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it; is absolutely harmless, and will effect a speedy and permanent cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been made temperate men who have taken Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge and to-day believe they quit drinking of their own free will. IT NEVER FAILS. The system once impregnated with the Specific, it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. For sale by FRANK SHERER, Druggist, 43 W. —The tearing up of Milwaukee street will begin at seven o'clock next Tuesday morning. Meanwhile Inspector John Watson has been looking over the street picking out defective curbings. Wherever a bad spot is found, it is to be replaced by the contractors. So far, the amount scheduled is five hundred feet.

—Mr John Hendrickson, of Bellville. Wis. has had a tumor removed from the right side weighing five and one half pounds, by Mrs Dr Dickinson without the use of the knife, by applying drawing plasters. He will return to his home to-morrow feeling much better and no doubt will recover. The tumor was of 20 years growth.

—Mr. B. R. Hilt has secured the agency for Rock county for the "Volunteer Soldiers of America," by John A. Logan. The book is nicely illustrated, and contains some 800 pages of well arranged historical matters. The subscription price of the book in library style is $5.25. A fine steel engraving of the author is given with each subscription. Mr. Hilt wants a good agent in every township. His many friends will wish him success in the new enterprise.

—The directors of the city hospital held a special meeting last evening in the rooms of the Associated Charities, at which rates were adopted for paid patients. It was also decided to issue five hundred pamphlets giving the rates for patients, rules, by-laws and all general information. It was decided to continue the services of the gentlemen now in attendance at the hospital. Everything is in good condition at the hospital, there now being six patients.

—The funeral of the late Andrew J. Downs was held from his home on Harmony street, second ward, at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The Rev. Thomas Walker, pastor of the First M. E. church, conducted the services, beautiful and appropriate music being rendered by a quartette consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Crawford, Mrs. H. G. Arnold, and Mr. Charles E. Church. There was a large attendance of friends to listen to the impressive services. The remains were taken to Oak Hill cemetery for interment, the pall bearers being Messrs. Richard Sisson, W. M. Eldredge, Orrin Bates, Nelson Cole and James Van Sicklen.

—The funeral of the late Albert P. Bennett will be held at three o'clock to-morrow afternoon instead of at two as was first expected. Oriental Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will have full charge of the services. The casket in which all that is mortal of Mr. Bennett will be laid at rest, attracted much attention as it stood in the undertaking rooms of W. H. Ashcraft to-day. It is a solid metallic case covered with the finest quality of silk plush. The trimmings are of heavy oxydized silver and gold. Everything is very plain in pattern, however, entire absence of ornamentation being especially requested.

—All that was mortal of Sarah S., wife of Samuel Hart of the third ward, was laid at rest this afternoon. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. S. P. Wilder of the Congregational church. Mr. Wilder's remarks were full of sympathy and consolation for the bereaved family and were very appropriate. Among those present at the services were many who had known the deceased ever since she had made her home in this city. Many beautiful floral tributes testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held. The pall-bearers were all intimate friends of the family, being Messrs. James Sutherland, R. M. Bostwick, J. A. Cunningham, S. A. Pond, David Jeffris and W. G. Wheelock.

THE WOLHAUPTERS AGAIN.

Good Words for the Family From Indiana.

Dispatches from Elkhart, Indiana, say; "The Wolhaupters, supposed to have been implicated in the Search murder, were residents of this city a few years ago, and during their sojourn here were regarded as an unfortunate family worthy of a better condition than had fallen to their lot. Both Mr. and Mrs. Wolhaupter were persons of education, and they had a large family of exceptionally bright and handsome children. Mr. Wolhaupter was apparently an impractical individual who was educated but shiftless, utterly incapable of making a living for himself and family, and together with the latter became virtually a ward of the Congregational church. Yet not the slightest suspicion regarding the integrity of any of the family was ever entertained. Their reputation while here was unimpeachable. They were simply shiftless and helpless. A son was here several weeks ago, and did odd chores about the city for a few days, but is not known to be here now. Persons who knew the Wolhaupters here can not believe that they are guilty of the crime charged to them."

PASSED WITH HONOR.

Janesville Has Three New Barristers.

Madison dispatches last evening announced that Prof. O. H. Keyes, John Cunningham and Harry McKinney, of this city, had passed their examination for admission to the bar with honor. The examinations were held Tuesday. Each candidate was given thirty questions According to all reports the averages of Janesville's representatives were well worthy of mention.

Only one of the three candidates—Mr Cunningham—expects to open an office at once for himself. He will occupy the rooms in the Bennett block formerly held by T. S. Nolan and is likely to meet with the success which he so richly deserves.

THE MARKET DAY.

The special meeting of the Business Men's Association last evening, called to hear the report of the committee on Market Day, was well attended. Mr. A. M. Valentine, chairman of the committee, reported that the enterprise seemed to meet the approbation of all the business men and the outlook was very encouraging for the opening day. The committee had prepared an advertisement and sent it to the leading newspapers in Freeport, Rockford, Whitewater, Monroe, Elkhorn and adjoining towns, and $75 was needed to thoroughly advertise the day. This amount, on his motion, was granted, the committee, to be used for the purpose.

President Merrill was authorized to correspond with the railway companies and see what can be done in the way of reduced fare or excursion rates.

The committee appointed to investigate the creamery business, made an informal report, by request, which led to some discussion that was both entertaining and profitable. It is safe to say that from present appearances, Janesville is liable to have a first class creamery before mid summer. There is nothing that would help the farmers of the county more than an enterprise of this kind, and the business men thoroughly understand that anything that contributes to the prosperity of the farmer, in like measure adds to the volume of business in the city.

It is expected that the Market Day, May 16, will call out a holiday crowd. Every line of business in the city should take an active interest in booming the day. Let us establish and maintain a market day that will be a credit to the city.

WHAT WILL THE HARVEST BE?

Some Interesting Points Suggested by Perusing the Mayor's Message.

The Rigid Enforcement of the Excise Laws as Suggested—"The Saloon in Politics."

Mayor Winans, in his annual message to the common council, delivered on Tuesday evening, made many valuable suggestions and recommendations concerning our city's welfare. None, perhaps, will attract more attention than his unmistakable words regarding the enforcement of the excise laws. In this his language is plain, and reads:—

"The power is with you to grant or "refuse to grant licenses for the sale of "intoxicating liquor. If you conclude to "grant any, it is with you to say how "many shall be granted and to whom. "The statute fixes the price to be paid, "and you have no right to increase or "lessen it. If you shall license "any one, and the person licensed shall disregard the laws regulating the traffic—for instance, if he "shall disregard the Sunday law, so "called, or shall sell liquors to a minor, "or shall keep his place open after eleven "o'clock p. m., or shall allow gambling "in or upon his premises, or shall keep "a disorderly place—you may revoke his "license. And I recommend, as I have "heretofore, that you promptly revoke "the license of any one who shall wilfully abuse the privileges granted "him."

Mayor Winans, by this language, means and says that he will do all in his power to enforce the Sunday law; selling liquors to minors, the eleven o'clock ordinance, and gambling. True, Mayor Winans has referred to this subject in former messages to the common council, but that body being composed of those who believed in "free whisky," his recommendations heretofore have been without support from the body over which he presided.

There is a change now!

Law and order people, republicans and democrats, endorse every word uttered by Mayor Winans in the above quotations. The Gazette endorses it, and trusts the mayor will not forget his statements; that he will have the nerve and backbone to enforce it, even if necessary to the placing of a special policeman at the front and back door of every saloon in the city, or where gambling is carried on.

Moral sentiment in Janesville has not reached that point where licenses are not granted; this being the case the Gazette is in favor of granting a license to every citizen who applies and conforms to the law; and is also in favor of "revoking the license of any one who shall wilfully abuse the privilege granted him." The Gazette is of the opinion that Mayor Winans will find six republican aldermen ready at all times—standing shoulder to shoulder at his side—to aid him in all legal ways, not only by their presence, but by their votes in increasing the police force, if necessary, to the fullest extent in rigidly and faithfully carrying out the policy outlined in the message quoted above.

Last Sunday Sam. Hubbell was arrested on the public streets in a beastly state of intoxication. A few moments before the arrest was made Hubbell emerged from the back door of a saloon. Hubbell was taken before the municipal court and got fifteen days in jail. The saloon keeper got—Hubbel's money for liquor sold contrary to statute law.

Will Mayor Winans endeavor to reverse this order of things?

What will the harvest be?

The Gazette may be in error in pronouncing in favor of granting a license to all who apply and conform to the law. One exception should be made. No member of the common council should be granted a license. The fact that saloon keepers are elected to place in our municipal government, is the source of much of the trouble complained of on account of the non-enforcement of law, the laxity of the officers in many ways, and infact nearly all of the evils creeping into our municipal affairs are traced directly to the "saloon in politics." This is one of the evils to be endured for a time, yet it should be remedied by charter amendment, making a person engaged in the liquor traffic ineligible for a place in the municipal government.

Janesville is not the only city where this question is being agitated. The new mayor of Fond du Lac ordered the police last Sunday to enforce the Sunday law relating to saloons. The result is best told by a Fond du Lac paper:

"In the evening officer McDermott "found Ald. Kayser, of the second ward, "full of business. Cards were being "played in his place, and drinks served. "The officer swore out a warrant for his "arrest this morning."

An alderman—one especially sworn to obey the law—being the first one caught. Good example, that.

Monday afternoon the same paper (Commonwealth) states.

Chief Kretlow served the warrant on Ald. Kaysor this morning for selling from his bar and allowing cards to be played in his bar-room last Sunday, and took him before Justice Blair. Officer McDermott was the complaining witness. District Attorney McCrory prosecuted for the state. Ald. Kayser plead guilty to the charge brought against him, and paid fine and costs in the sum of $5.56, the fine having been placed at one dollar, because it was the first offense.

This afternoon Chief Kretlow swore out warrants for the arrest of Anton Pheil, of Ditter, Mitchell & Co., druggists, for having violated the Sunday law in selling liquor and cigars, and Mr. Pheil was brought before Justice Blair. He plead guilty to the charge and paid fine and costs in the sum of $4.95.

J. J. Schorr, who keeps a saloon in connection with his boarding house known as the Farmers' Home, was brought into the same court by Chief Kretlow, plead guilty, and was likewise taxed $4.95 fine and costs.

As the Commonwealth goes to press, warrants are in the hands of the chief of police for the arrest of Kent & Durrand, druggists, and H. G. Hanson, the restaurant keeper, for having violated the same law.

Fond du Lac is not the only place. The mayor of Eau Claire is making it hot for the violaters of the law. Monday seven persons were arrested for selling liquor on Sunday and keeping their doors open after eleven o'clock p. m. Two plead guilty, and the cases of the other five were continued.

Eau Claire is not the only place. Nearly every place in the state is agitating this question at this time.

A dispatch from Chippewa Falls says that warrants were sworn out on Monday by the chief of police for the arrest of the proprietor of the leading hotel and five saloonkeepers charged with selling liquor on Sunday or after eleven o'clock Saturday night.

What will the harvest be?

Wait and see.

Cleghorn, of Clinton, was appointed for the purpose of securing if possible, a tent to be used for campaign meetings in this congressional district.

The Slayer of Lawyer Kingsley Convicted of Murder in the Second Degree.

WAVERLY, Ia., April 26.—The trial of M. E. Billings for the murder of W. S. Kingsley on the evening of December 21, 1887, resulted in a verdict of manslaughter in the second degree. The jury was out forty hours. Judge Ruddick will pronounce sentence to-day.

Both Billings and Kingsley were lawyers.]

The resolution was adopted.

A county committee consisting of J. B. Doe, Jr.; W. T. Hall, of Beloit; Andrew Jenson, of Edgerton; M. J. Sullivan, of Harmony, and John Harvey, of Johnstown, was appointed, and the convention then adjourned.

NYE AND A NEW HAMLET.

He Meets Janesville's Favorite, Jas. Owen O'Connor.

A tragedian who, not so very long ago, brought tears to the eyes of an audience in Janesville, is now in New York. Bill Nye in a recent number of the New York World, says:

The past week witnessed the closing debut of that great Shakspearian humorist and emotional ass, Mr. James Owen O'Connor, at the Star Theater. During his extraordinary engagement he has given us Hamlet, Phidias and Shylock, Othello and Richelieu. I think I like his Hamlet best, and yet it is a pleasure to see him in anything wherein he kills himself. Encouraged by the success of beautiful but self-made actors and actresses, and hoping to win a place for himself and his portrait in the great soap galaxy, Mr. O'Connor had placed himself in the hands of some misguided elocutionist, and then sought to educate the people of New York, and elevate them out of their thralldom, up into the glorious light of the O'Connor school of training.

The first week he was in the hands of the critics, and they spoke serenely of his methods. Later it was deemed best to place his merits in the hands of a man who would be on equal footing with him. What O'Connor wanted was one of his peers, who would therefore judge him fairly. I was selected because I know nothing whatsoever about acting, and would therefore be on equal footing with Mr. O'Connor.

After seeing his Hamlet I am of the opinion that he did wisely in choosing New York for debutting purposes, for had he chosen Denver, Col., at the end of the third act kind hands would have removed him from the stage by means of benzine and a rag.

I understand that Mr. O'Connor charges Messrs. Edwin Booth and Lawrence Barrett with using their influence here among the masses in order to prejudice said masses against Mr. O'Connor, thus making it unpleasant for him to act and inciting in the audience a feeling of gentle hostility and rutabagas, which Mr. O'Connor depreciates very much whenever he can get a chance to do so. I have been looking into this matter a little, and I do not think it is true. Up to last Thursday Messrs. Booth and Barrett were not aware of Mr. O'Connors' great metropolitan success, and it is generally believed among the friends of the two former gentlemen that they do not feel it so keenly as Mr. O'Connor has been led to suppose.

To Reorganize the Knights.

NEW YORK, April 26.—The committee of five appointed by the anti-administration Knights of Labor convention, held in Chicago last October, has issued a circular to the order declaring that it has dwindled in numbers from 702,000 to 240,000; that Powderly's special call for funds for lecturers is in reality to get funds to keep the order out of bankruptcy till the next general convention, and calls on all true Knights to join the opposition and help reorganize the order.
